Teacher's Insight

Growing together, discovering ourselves, and embracing every new opportunity.

"The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step." — Lao Tzu

August has been a month filled with learning, celebration, creativity, and wonderful moments of togetherness in the Primary Section. It has been heartwarming to see our young learners becoming more comfortable in their surroundings, forming friendships, and finding their own rhythm within the classroom. With each passing day, they are growing a little more confident in expressing themselves, taking responsibility, and approaching new experiences with curiosity.

We are also beginning to see some lovely little signs of growing independence in their learning. A child attempting to read a new word, picking up a book with curiosity, or making an effort to complete a task before seeking help are all meaningful steps. With encouragement at school and continued support from home, these small efforts can gradually become wonderful learning habits. It is these little moments that remind us that every child has their own pace, and every step forward is worth celebrating.

As the days have passed, our classroom has begun to feel more like a little community. The children are learning to listen to one another, share, cooperate, and appreciate their friends. They are also becoming more familiar with routines and expectations, allowing them to approach their learning with greater ease and confidence. These seemingly small changes are meaningful milestones in their journey.

Alongside their academic learning, the children continue to develop important life skills through everyday classroom experiences. They are learning to make choices, take care of their belongings, help one another, and approach tasks with greater independence. Watching them discover what they can do for themselves has been one of the most rewarding parts of this month.

We sincerely thank our parents for their continued encouragement and support. Your partnership makes a meaningful difference in our children's journey. As we move forward, we look forward to seeing our young learners embrace every opportunity with curiosity, confidence, and joy.

Together, we learn. Together, we grow. Together, we shine!

EMPOWERING EDUCATORS WITH KNOWLEDGE AND LIFE-SAVING SKILLS

Inclusive Classrooms: Life Without Limits

A teacher sensitization workshop on Inclusive Classrooms was conducted on August 8 for teachers from Pre-Primary to Grade 8. The session focused on creating classrooms where every child feels valued, supported and empowered to participate.

Through engaging case studies, reflection activities and practical strategies, teachers explored ways to understand individual strengths, build meaningful rapport and provide appropriate accommodations. The workshop highlighted visual supports, movement breaks, differentiated learning, positive reinforcement and collaboration with the Special Educator.

The central message, "Life Without Limits," encouraged teachers to accept every learner, provide equal opportunities and recognize their unique strengths. The session reinforced that true inclusion goes beyond physical presence—it is about creating belonging, participation, emotional safety and opportunities for every child.

The medical team from Regal Hospital explained the importance of timely intervention, identifying cardiac emergencies, activating emergency medical services, and administering CPR until professional help arrives. Teachers also participated in a hands-on demonstration using a training mannequin, allowing them to practise CPR techniques under expert guidance.
